Dear Devotees and Friends

Feeding Scheme

As part of our mission to serve, we have embarked on a weekly Seva Feeding Project in addition to our various other Seva Projects which continue on an ongoing basis.

A committee, dedicated to this project, was formed and meets on Monday mornings at the temple site to discuss the project for the week. We have committed to providing a meal for about 160 poor children at the La Mercy Primary School and commenced this soul stirring project on 27 July 2012. We have attached some pictures of the feeding done on that day, and as you will see, we were able to bring a gratified smile to so many hungry little ones.

Our pledge is to make a small difference to these children's lives, most of whom, we have been advised, go without proper meals on a daily basis. We cannot let children attend a full day of school on an empty stomach. We thus support feeding schemes at schools as we want to prevent children from being malnourished and ensure that they become more active, nourished and healthy, thus enhancing their learning capacity.

The Umhlanga Hindu Society invites you to be a part of this initiative and to share in the Joy of Giving by donating cash, any food items such as bread, milk, peanut butter, jam, tin food, fresh vegetables, lentils, beans, rice and special treats. You are welcome to donate or sponsor large utensils and pots. Most importantly you are invited to join in the preparation and serving of these meals.

The Umhlanga Hindu Society has a dedicated Seva Bank Account for all our Seva Projects. We humbly request you to be part of this project in whatever way you can. Cash contributions can be deposited into the Seva Account and referenced as the Feeding Scheme or given to Shereen at the temple and you will be receipted accordingly. Please see bank details below.

We look forward to your continued support in this humble venture which means a world to those receiving.

Kindly contact Ashika Naicker, the co-ordinator of this project, on e-mail: umhlanga-hindu-society@telkomsa.net or our secretary Shereen Bhanprakash on 031- 572 7357 for any further information.

Yours faithfully in service to the community.
